Re: Alcantara v. United States of America, 07 Civ. 10602 (AJP)

Dear Judge Peck:

This Office represents the United States (the “Government”), the defendant in the above-referenced Federal Tort Claims Act (the “FTCA”) action. I write on behalf of both parties to respectfully request a brief extension of the deadline for completion of expert discovery in this matter.

Pursuant to Your Honor’s order at the July 1, 2008 conference, the plaintiff and the Government were directed to make their expert disclosures on, respectively, August 1 and September 5, 2008. I received plaintiff’s expert disclosures on July 28, 2008. On August 1, I pointed out to plaintiffs’ counsel that those disclosures did not meet the requirements of Rule 26(a)(2)(B) in several material respects and asked for those disclosures be supplemented within a week to cure the deficiencies.

On August 7, 2008, plaintiff’s counsel telephoned me and requested an additional week to cure the deficiencies in plaintiff’s expert disclosures. In light of this delay, I respectfully request that the deadline for plaintiff’s expert disclosures be extended, nunc pro tunc, until August 14, 2008 and the deadline for the Government’s expert disclosures and the completion of expert discovery in this matter be extended from September 5, 2008 until September 16, 2008.
